a part of the small enterprises remained in private hands. Only toward the end of 1948 and during 1949 was it possible to complete the inclusion of these remaining production units, while the unsatisfactory small enterprises were liquidated.

After the completion of this action, the Czechoslovak nationalized fruit and vegetable canning industry was able to begin the delayed establishment of a proper organizational basis.

As far as the organizational distribution of the fruit and vegetable canneries is concerned, it is estimated that there will be about eight special state enterprises for processing fruits and vegetables in the Czech Provinces. In the krajs with lower production, such as Ceske Budejovice, Pilsen, and Ostrava, the fruit and vegetable canneries will be included with distilling enterprises in mixed state enterprises. In Slovakia, the Carpathia state enterprise will have three base enterprises situated in Rimavska Sobota, Prievidza, and Dunajska Streda.

The firms Cetap, chemical production and wholesale trade in medicinal plants, in Bratislava, and Ernest Reval, wholesale trade in beer, in Roznava, have been nationalized and placed under the Ministry of Food, effective 1 January 1948.
